

ALB INDONESIA 2015
IN-HOUSE LEGAL SUMMIT
JAKARTA - 12 MAY

8:15 Registration

9:00 Chair's Welcoming Remarks - Ranajit Dam, Managing Editor, Asian Legal Business, Thomson Reuters

9:10 Keynote Opening Address: Streamlining anti-corruption and corporate governance efforts

Professor Hikmahanto Juwana, Independent Commissioner, Unilever Indonesia, Member of the Legal Experts Team, Ministry of Defense, Member of the Legal Committee, Ministry of State-Owned Enterprises, Professor of International Law, University of Indonesia

9:30 Panel: Optimising your M&A strategy for Indonesia

- Key M&A drivers and recent trends in Indonesia
- What are a foreign investors' key concerns when looking to invest in Indonesia?
- How can Indonesian companies prepare themselves for an M&A transaction?
- What are the key issues to anticipate in a cross-border M&A transaction?

Moderator: Melissa Ng, Partner, Clifford Chance

Dede Fikry, Senior Associate, Linda Widyati & Partners (LWP) in association with Clifford Chance

Ricardo Simajuntak, Co-Chair, PERADI

Arnaud Granger, Managing Director, Banking - Mergers & Acquisitions, Barclays

Thomas Sugito, Senior Legal Counsel, Triputra Investindo Arya

10:30 Refreshment Break

11:00 Keynote Address: National Legislation Program 2015 - 2019: What will be changed in Indonesian law?

Arsul Sani, Member of Parliament (DPR/MPR-RI), Republic of Indonesia (Committee of Law, Security and Human Rights & Legislation Committee)

11:30 Keynote Address: Updates on the Indonesian government's new investment policy and the One Stop Service (OSS) Center

Riyatno S. H., Head of Legal Assistance Center, Indonesia Investment Coordinating Board (BKPM)

12:00 Networking Luncheon

13:00 Keynote Address by Reza Topobroto, Chairman, Indonesia Corporate Counsel Association, Director, Legal Affairs, Microsoft Indonesia

13:30 Panel: Building a robust anti-corruption programme through legal and compliance departments

- Local vs. Global regulations – what should companies be aware of from non-Indonesian regulations?
- What are benefits and limitations of in-house anti-corruption training?
- Best practice for dealing with third party relationships and the risks these relationships can bring
- Why is M&A due diligence so important, and what does this involve?

Moderator: Ranajit Dam, Managing Editor – Asian Legal Business, Thomson Reuters

Satria Primaldi Hasymi, General Counsel OTP Geothermal
Christopher Monahan, Chief Counsel - Asia Pacific, AECOM

14:30 Refreshment Break

15:00 Panel: The changing role of the In-House Counsel in 2015

Moving the in-house legal function from legal advisor to boardroom leader - Is it possible to change your remit from reactive legal assistance to genuine business driver?

- How easy is it for in-house counsel to step from simple legal advice to proactive risk assessment and influencing top-level business decisions?
- How and to what extent can in-house communities work alongside business leaders heads to influence legislation and develop the wider corporate landscape in Indonesia?
- How does the increasingly business-oriented role of in-house legal teams affect the relationship with external counsel?

Moderator: Davidson Samosir, Editor-in-Chief, English Newsroom, Hukumonline

Lydia Tumbelaka, Director, Bank CIMB Niaga
Angela Hertiningtyas, Indonesia Counsel, Proctor & Gable
Kunthi Hartini, Legal & Compliance Manager – Indonesia, Novo Nordisk Indonesia

16:00 Chair's Closing Remarks

16:10 End of the 2nd Annual Indonesia In-House Legal Summit 2015